Press Release – Armed Robbery Arrests

Date: 2-27-18

Bountiful Police Department has arrested two suspects for the robbery of Domino's Pizza at 1171 South 500 West in Bountiful. The robbery occurred on 2-18-18 at 10:55 p.m. when two men entered the store wearing masks, displaying handguns, and demanding money. During the robbery, the mask fell from the face of one suspect allowing video to capture images of his face. Media postings of the images led to the identification and arrest of two suspects.

During the arrests and service of a search warrant, narcotics, paraphernalia, and a firearm were recovered. A third suspect was arrested and charged with narcotics violations in relation to this case.

Arrests:

Jonathan Ray Wilson, age 34, was arrested and charged with aggravated robbery, possession of a dangerous weapon by a restricted person, possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Joshua Nathaniel Parfitt, age 20, was arrested and charged with aggravated robbery, possession of a dangerous weapon by a restricted person, possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Camilla Rose Iorg, age 20, was arrested for possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, and possession of drug paraphernalia.

We are grateful to the public for their assistance with identifying and arresting these suspects.
